

MLINZI handbag

Bold, sculptural, and unapologetically original — the Rib Case Bag is a wearable piece of art. Inspired by the intricate structure of the human ribcage, this statement bag is handcrafted from full-grain leather, with curved panels that mimic bones protecting the core.

Each "rib" is precisely cut and layered, creating a dimensional, almost skeletal form that's both avant-garde and deeply organic. Designed to demand attention and ignite conversation, this bag isn't for blending in — it's for standing out. Make a statement. Turn heads. Own your space. The interior is surprisingly spacious, lined with soft pig split leather, and secured with a hidden magnetic closure.

For those who don't just carry fashion — they embody it.
